Jill Bayers Hotchkiss

This summer was a difficult one, as we said goodbye to my mom, Pauline, who was 84 years old.

Jill Hotchkiss

She had suffered from the affects of Alzheimer's disease for at least 15 years with the last five and a half of that spent in a special Alzheimer's care facility in Butte, MT.

This dreaded disease robbed her and our family of many wonderful years of life. Incredibly talented in a number of ways, the field of music was where she excelled, before the onset of her disease. Even after going to the Marquis Home in Butte, when we played classical music or sang hymns at their small church service, her hand would come up as if to conduct the orchestra and her foot would tap in time. Amazingly, she continued to do this until shortly before her death.

Some of her greatest musical accomplishments were conducting the church choir, performing in the Chug Chug Girls musical group, conducting the Ruby Valley Chorale, organizing the Jubilate musical retreat with several friends and participating in the Butte Symphony and the Montana Power Summer Symphony which chose the state's best musicians to participate in their outdoor, summer symphony. She was a dedicated viola player, which she learned in high school and excelled at the rest of her life.

Not only was she musically talented, she was tremendous ranch support for my dad and one of the

Enthusiasts for the Hereford breed are prominent on both sides of my family. My maternal grandfather, Jimmy Basson founded the successful Wye

Not Hereford stud in South Africa, and my paternal grandfather, John T. Douglas established the Ervie Hereford herd, in southwest Scotland where I grew up with my three younger sisters, Ellen, Olivia and Kristina.

Chance brought the two families together when in 1981 my father, John S. Douglas accepted the task to tend three Hereford bulls from Britain to South Africa. The voyage lasted four weeks on a royal mail ship with stops at Tenerife, St. Helena and Ascension Islands in the Atlantic before arriving at Cape Town. One of the bulls, Clipston Rufus, was destined to be a stock sire for my grandfather and little did my dad know that in 10 years Jimmy would be his father-in-law.

Our farm is Mains of Airies and is a 600-acre block, situated on the exposed peninsula of the Rhins of Galloway. The farm has a rocky and picturesque coastline with views on to Ireland and the Mull of Kintyre.

In 1929 my great grandfather, John Douglas, bought Mains of

Junior National: Rookies, Veterans create an exciting future for Herefords

By B. Lynn Gordon

Herefords headed to the Heartland, June 27–July 3 and they came in droves. Along with the cattle came more than 800 enthusiastic junior members who travelled with their families and friends to the 2015 Junior National Hereford Expo (JNHE) held in Grand Island, NE. This annual competition of young people with a love for Herefords, was a record-breaking event with over 2,000 cattle entries from 39 states. The event also hosted more than 20 educational and life-skill building competitions throughout the week from public speaking, to marketing to cook-off competitions.

Many juniors make it an annual summer event. Brady Jensen, Courtland, KS, only missed one Junior National from the time he first led a Hereford into the ring until he ended his junior career leading the largest youth organization in the nation as the 2014-

most gracious hostesses I've seen. At the height of our ranch days, she would cook for a crew of about a dozen in the summers, two or three times a day. Of course this was along with all of her other endeavors such as gardening, church and musical performances but back in those days, Hereford people might just stop in for a visit, tour of the herd and a couple of meals. Mom never missed a beat. She entertained the visitors, went out with the group to look at cattle, then cooked a delicious meal for everyone. She also attended many state and national Hereford events, meetings, tours and shows with dad.

In the fall, when our production sale was held, mom would organize and cook the sale lunch for hundreds of people, get the morning coffee and donuts going for the FFA kids and the customers, then follow it up with a post-sale get-together at the house where about 200 people would congregate. Some years she and the Chug Chug Girls were part of the entertainment for the after-sale party. While she wasn't out with the cattle every day, my mom had a lot to do with the ranch and worked closely with my dad, even travelling with him to several foreign countries on Hereford-related trips.

She was very involved in the Montana Hereford Auxiliary, 4-H and Ruby Valley Cowbells for as long as I can remember. These groups, back in the 1960s and 1970s, were an integral part of the ranching communities in Montana. The ladies involved in these groups worked tirelessly to promote and support the Hereford and beef businesses throughout the state of Montana. A large part of the promotion and support of the Auxiliary and Cowbells was providing what would now be called catering for a number of bull sales and other cattle events. And wow, she and her friends were good cooks plus good at public relations. They didn't just cook.

Fun loving, gracious and kind, we enjoyed lots of good times, including several trips to Yellowstone and Glacier Park piled into the back of a pickup with grandparents and cousins.

Of course you never knew what was going to come up on the ranch from day to day and she just rolled with whatever it happened to be. Summers were especially busy times. From what I remember, when my brother, sister and I were really little, she was the one putting us on the ponies and horses for a ride almost every day in the summer. I remember a few times when we loaded up one of the ponies with several cousins, only to be quickly unloaded. Mom just took it in stride and we crawled back on. When we were older and all working on the ranch, there was at least one cousin or young Hereford person from another state staying with us. We just melded them into the family for the summer.

She was a wonderful, loving mother who encouraged each of us children to pursue our talents. For me, it was the pursuit of art and advertising and how to combine that with interest in cattle. I guess it worked out as I was able to combine the two endeavors for what I do today.

We received many nice messages, notes, calls and e-mails. Thank you to everyone who contacted us, expressing condolences.. It seems like the summer has not only been tough on us but a number of other Hereford families whose loved ones departed this earth too soon. Our condolences to them as well.

Special thanks to the Ruby Valley Chorale who so graciously performed one of Mom's favorite songs at her memorial service. I know she enjoyed working with all of you over the years.

I would also like to thank the staff at Marquis who so lovingly cared for her in her final days.

We will miss her so much.

Airies and moved there from Ayrshire with his wife and young family. In those days dairy and 55 acres of second-early ware potatoes were the main enterprises with much of the milk from the 140-cow herd of Ayrshires used on farm to produce cheese. There also was both a herd of sows and a weaner pig finishing enterprise, which used up both the whey from the cheese production as well as the "brock tatties."

John Douglas was a noted Clydesdale horse judge and breeder and as well as the 6 1/2 pair of work horse for the farmwork there always was a top stallion and a string of brood mares at "the Airies." Sheep also featured, with a 100-ewe flock of half-breds producing Suffolk-cross butchers lambs. By the 1940s my great grandfather had taken the lease on 5 sheep farms in the southern uplands of Galloway and south Ayrshire and later bought another hill farm to expand his sheep numbers. Scottish Blackface was the breed on the hills and cull ewes and wedder lambs were often transported down from the hills by train to our local town Stranraer, and then walked the 8 miles to Mains of Airies to be fattened on turand mechanized and modernized. The horses were replaced by tractors, the leased farms were given up for timber production, cheese was no longer made on-farm with all the milk now sold to the Stranraer creamery. Pigs became unprofitable and were replaced with a beef enterprise. The hill farm had a herd of Galloway cows and he crossed half the cows with a Hereford bull, weaning all the calves and finishing them back at Mains of Airies. The Hereford bull was also used on half the dairy herd to produce beef calves for finishing and soon the beef production became a valuable part of the farming equation at Mains of Airies.

By now John T. Douglas recognized the superior performance and fleshing of the Hereford crosses and in 1969 he established the Ervie Hereford herd when he purchased his first pedigree Hereford female, Wroxhall Daisy B36, at the large Hereford cattle sale held in Edinburgh. Initially the pedigree numbers remained under 10 cows but after the dairy was dispersed in 1979, the commercial beef cow numbers went up to 150 and the pedigree Hereford herd expanded to 25 cows, with most of the bulls sold privately to local dairy farmers.

My father, John Sloan Douglas, introduced the policy of breeding our own commercial females replacements. When the BSE health crisis hit the UK livestock industry in 1987, he dispersed the crossbred commercial and the Ervie Hereford herd expanded to 140. A portion of the herd was bred to Aberdeen Angus bulls with the aim of breeding an alternative commercial beef suckler replacement female.

During a visit to his father-in-law's Wye Not herd in South Africa in 1993, he was greatly impressed by the progeny of American Hereford bulls and became determined to source similar genetics to improve the Ervie herd. Semen from BB Domino 1087 and a Canadian son of L1 Pacesetter was bought and used with good results. In 2002 he sourced and bought a Danish in-calf Hereford heifer with bull calf at foot. She was the result of an embryo from Ken Bieber and produced two very successful stock bulls for the Ervie herd. In 2003 another heifer from the same female line was purchased from Denmark. Her genetics also enhanced the Ervie herd.

American Hereford bloodlines were sourced in the early 2000s which have had a positive impact on the herd. Flushes from several Line One herds in recent years have continued the forward progress.

Then in 2005 my father flew out to the Denver Stock Show where he met and chatted with Jack Holden. Jack was very helpful in overcoming the problems associated with importing fresh genetics to the UK and by December 2006 our first straight Ervie Line Ones were born from three Holden flushes.

Another friendship had been struck up in Denver with Craig and Junior Beran and two cows from their very good Line One herd were flushed for importation in 2007.

2008 saw more flushes imported from Jack Holden and also a flush bought from Mark Cooper.

Now, as well as using the imported L1 bulls across our herd we are maintaining a herd of straight Line One females and continuing with a line breeding program to produce further stock sires ongoing. On top of this, following a stint of work experience I had with the Beran family in 2013, I am eagerly awaiting some calves from a further 2 flushes imported from B&D Herefords last year.

The majority of our bull calves are kept for our on-farm Spring Bull sale. We held our first on-farm bull auction in 2010 and commercial demand increases year on year. Bulls are produced completely naturally without pampering with emphasis on fertility and fitness. This year we sold 50 bulls to a top of £4,500 (approx. $7,000 U.S.) and an average of £2,300 (approx. $3,600 U.S.).

Alongside the Hereford herd we run flocks of Texels and Romney ewes which lamb March and April.

Also, what began as a hobby for fun 15 years ago with one purchased Appaloosa mare has now become a small appaloosa stud farm, which we are developing and have begun to use for stock work. Eventually we may be able to sell a few colts!

My dad's farm policy is to keep input costs low whilst maintaining a high quality end product.

Farm labour has been reduced to one

The Douglasses run approximately 170 registered Hereford cows and have a line breeding program, using sires resulting from their imported Line One importations. They have established five female "tribes" within the Ervie herd to prevent bloodlines from becoming unacceptably close.

Lots of Green Grass – Low-cost management suits the Hereford herd and economic principles also drive the breeding selection with regard to good fertility, longevity and problem-free cows. Much emphasis is placed on breeding cattle with good feet and legs. Cows to have tight level udders with smallish teats. Bulls well balanced with clean underline and sheath and good even sized testicles.

The herd is performance recorded and yearling bulls and heifers are scanned for muscle and back fat in a bid to select replacements that will improve red meat yield.

part time worker and cropping contractors are used as required.

The farm is cropped in rotation with predominately grass leys for seven years, followed by a crop of kale, then with spring oats for two or three years and reseeded back into grass. Blends of the most productive new clover varieties and incorporated into our grass mixtures producing high outputs from our grazing sward whilst reducing nitrogen fertilizer applications. By strip grazing kale over the winter we have also reduced our grass silage acreage and costs.

Low cost management suits our Hereford herd and our breeding selection is driven by good fertility, longevity most importantly learned the value of the NJHA program. In his closing address, Jensen said, "I applaud the junior exhibitors and their families who are the reason the event is so great and who will continue to make it better."

Some juniors attend their first Junior National as soon as they can, like Jensen who was 7-years old and some start participating as a teenager or when the event happens to be geographically located close to their home or in their home state. Whatever the case and no matter what age they start participating, one thing they obviously have in common is that the JNHE is one of their favorite events of the year.

Wyatt Debnan, Gaithersburg, MD and his family drove 22-hours from the East Coast to central Nebraska for this 15-year-old to compete in his fourth JNHE.

"It was great to see the countryside travelling that far and having the chance to be here and participating," Debnan said, as he and his brother Breck prepare Wyatt's heifer for the showing.

Seventeen year old, Jayme Graves, attended the 2014 JNHE in Harrisburg, PA, representing Washington as their state queen. That was Graves' first experience at a JNHE and she told herself, she was going the next year if at all possible, but this time she was bringing cattle. Graves dream came true and she showed up in Nebraska with two heifers to compete in the show. "I really was looking forward to seeing the people I met last year attended his first JNHE and was one of two exhibitors that made the long trip from Louisiana to Nebraska to be at the show. Lane's dad Jared was happy to allow Lane to attend the event and have the opportunity for Lane to show and get involved. "The funnest thing I have done all week is show my cattle," said when I served as queen and of course was excited to meet many new fellow juniors," said Graves.

Younger members beam with excitement

The excitement of Emma Nichols is hard to contain as she returns to her second JNHE in her young lifetime. Nichols and her family brought six head of cattle from north central Kansas, where her grandpa Harrold Carswell, Alton, KS and his family have been raising Herefords since 1928.

"I really like showing cattle and was so thrilled to make the finals in showmanship," said Nichols as she works on the tail of her heifer.

Young Lane Johnson of Lafayette, LA

Lane and he mentioned, I can't wait to go next year.

One young junior who will head back to New Carlisle, Ohio proudly is 10-year-old Drew Weymouth as his March 2015 heifer calf was named Horned Owned Division I Reserve.

"I like to show my cattle but one of my other favorite events this week was playing in the 3-on-3 basketball competition," said Weymouth. The 3-on-3 basketball competition gives the juniors a break from the showing and provides a great opportunity to build teamwork and have some fun.

Little 8-year-old Sarah Birdsall always has a smile on her face. Whether she is out in the show ring or feeding her heifers, you can see how much she enjoys her cattle. Birdsall, the daughter of Heather and Dennis Birdsall of Homer, NY is sure to be at many more Junior Nationals and maybe someday will follow in her mothers' footsteps, as National Hereford Queen. This was Sarah's first JNHE and interestingly her older brother Sam's first JNHE was three years ago when the event was also in Grand Island, NE, so the family was familiar with the long 1,285 mile drive.

No doubt the younger members are counting the days until the 2016 JNHE to be held July 9-15 in Madison, WI, and the older members are ready to continue to see their friends, exhibit their cattle and challenge themselves in the competitions as they continue to grow as the future of the Hereford breed.

Drew Weymouth from Ohio had a division champ.

Lane Johnson of Lafayette, LA attended his first JNHE with his dad Jared Savoie.

Sarah Birdsall, daughter of Heather and Dennis Birdsall of Homer, NY.

Tate Johnson and his dad, Mark from South Dakota. Tate was the 5th Grade NJHA Prospect Award winner.

Addison MacFarlane, Cottonwood, CA, concentrating on doing her best at showing her bred and owned bull.

It's a family affair fitting Trevor Bickelhaupt's, Mt. Carroll, IL, heifer with mom helping do the tail, dad trimming the topline.

Jack Ward, new Executive Vice President of the American Hereford Association, was helping announce for cattle entries to come to the ring to keep the show moving.

Young Piper Colyer, Bruneau, ID is following in her father Kyle (shown) footsteps showing at Junior Nationals. Piper getting ready to enter the ring with her January bred and owned heifer.

The Carlson family of Murdock, MN enjoyed their week at Junior National and daughter Mallory was busy representing MN as their state queen. From L to R - Beth, Mallory, Ross and Reagan.

Next July hundreds of National Junior Hereford Association members will travel to Madison, Wisconsin for the 2016 JNHE and many of these Wisconsin juniors will be there to welcome their friends.

All the way from Pennsylvania the Howe family, Deanajak Farms, enjoyed their trip across the country to Nebraska. From L to R: Ethan, Nigel and Kaia; on right Austin, and wife Kelsey, Jenny (in front). Jenny and her husband Doug, who was unable to make the trip, have been continuous financial supporters of the NJHA program.

Ward Named Executive Vice President of AHA

Jack Ward has been named Executive Vice President (EVP) of the American Hereford Association (AHA). He has served as AHA's chief operating officer and director of breed improvement since he joined the AHA team in 2003.

As EVP, Jack will lead, direct, manage or support all functions of the association, including serving as the association secretary. Reporting directly to the AHA Board, he will develop and recommend policies, plans and programs to effectively meet the needs and challenges of the membership and to enhance the growth and reputation of the Hereford breed and the American Hereford Association.

"After a rigorous search, Jack was an inspired choice by the board," says Eric Walker, AHA president and a Hereford breeder from Morrison, TN. "His knowledge and experience of all aspects of the seedstock industry combined with his commitment and respect for the Hereford breed and its members made him the choice candidate."

"He cares deeply about organizational development, the people who work at AHA and our Hereford members. We believe he will continue to lead the association as the breed continues to increase market share in the commercial industry."

With deep roots in the beef cattle industry, Jack has been involved in the seedstock industry since birth. While growing up in Indiana, he was active in 4-H and FFA showing cattle, sheep and pigs. He earned his associate of science degree from Black Hawk East, Kewanee, IL, and bachelor's degree in agriculture economics from Purdue University.

Jack's leadership has created increased interest and participation in the association's National Reference Sire Program (NRSP) and testing Hereford genetics in real-world commercial settings. During his tenure AHA has increased the number of commercial cows used in testing young sires from 700 to 2,000.

He was also instrumental in AHA's development of genomic-enhanced expected progeny differences (GE-EPDs) and other breed improvement strategies such as the newly released udder EPDs.

"As Executive Vice President, I will strive to encourage a culture that enhances the skills and expertise of our competent and qualified staff with the direction and guidance of the AHA Board while continually monitoring the needs and interests of our diverse membership," Jack says. "It is both humbling and an honor to lead an organization that has been such a major part of my life and my life's work."

Along with his solid background in association work, he also has real world seedstock experience spending 16 years managing several predominant seedstock operations and most recently was managing partner of Maple Lane Angus.

He is recognized throughout the industry for his ability to effectively communicate and educate. He has traveled across the U.S. and overseas to lead educational forums. Jack serves on the Beef Improvement Federation (BIF) board of directors — serving from 2006 to 2010 and was re-elected to the board in 2014. In 2013, BIF honored Jack with its Continuing Service Award for his contributions to BIF past, present and future.

He currently serves on the Ultrasound Guidelines Council (UGC), the Scientific Advisory Board for the Feed Efficiency Project and on the beef species advisory board for the National Animal Germplasm Program.

A proponent of performance data coupled with phenotypically correct cattle, Jack has judged livestock shows for more than 30 years in the U.S. and six foreign countries.

Family is also a very important part of his life as well. Jack and his wife, Mary Ann, reside in Plattsburg, MO, and have two sons — Cameron and

Jack Ward, new Executive Vice President of the American Hereford Association

Carter. Cameron is a senior at the University of Southern Indiana and Carter is a sophomore at Black Hawk East. Jack and Mary Ann raised both boys involved in agriculture and both have a passion for showing and raising livestock.

Jack is also active in his community. He's a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus. Jack served as president of the Clinton County Extension Council and was a 4-H beef leader in Clinton County.

BRUNEAU, IDAHO

including:

Open Heifer Calves,
Bred Heifers, Embryos,
Pregnant Recipients and Proven Donors.

Lot 1A - C MISS HARLAND 8183 ET

This family of cattle are always among the favorites that visitors gravitate to. We have been asked numerous times to sell these females so we decided to offer some of them to you. You can take your choice from the cow that started this whole line or choose between three daughters of her sired by "Miles McKee". This bred heifer lot 1D has it all. Great marked, big middled, and very sound. All of these females are "Strait to the Donor Pen" kind. Pasture Bred 05/21/2015 to C CJC ILR REGAL 3174 ET due 02/28/2016, Checked Safe.

Lot 7 - C 092X LADY MILES 5138 ET

One of three full sisters being offered in the sale sired by Miles and the Burlesque female that had an outstanding show career. This sister simply has the most power and overall mass of the group. She is big boned and stout made. She has always been the one that you look at and say if she keeps coming she is going to be tough. These last couple weeks things have been going her way and we look for her to be one of the most popular females on sale day.

Lot 9 - C R111 MISS MILES 5323 ET

This mating is simply a sure bet. These two females are great made and have the same quality as everything else "Miles" and "R111" produce. R111 has slowed down a bunch in this past year so we are going to be trying to keep as many daughters as possible in the future. So take advantage of the opportunity to add a daughter of "R111" to your herd before its to late.

Lot 1D - C MISS MILES 4161

This bred heifer lot 1D has it all. Great marked, big middled, and very sound. To top it all off she is out of the Lot 1A donor 8183 and sired by Miles McKee. She could possibly be the best Miles McKee heifer to date. AI Bred 06/10/2015 to CRR 5280 due 03/19/2016, Checked Safe.

Lot 16 - C BAR ONE 1262 MILES 4423 ET

We have had a lot of requests for fall born heifers and lot 16 should be exactly what many of you are looking for. She is big bodied and sound and has a great look from the side. Best of all she is extremely gentle and could be shown by a young or in experienced showman. Great genetic backing with "Miles" and "1262" who was a division winner at the 2013 Junior Nationals.

Final Farewell...

Pauline Oberg Bayers

Pauline Louise Oberg Bayers passed away on July 3, 2015 at the Marquis Care Center in Butte, MT after a courageous 15 year battle with Alzheimer's disease.

Pauline was born in Great Falls, MT on May 26, 1931 to parents Ross and Oubri Oberg of White Sulphur Springs, MT where her father was manager of the Woodward's Department store. Approximately 10 years later the Obergs moved to Twin Bridges, MT where her father managed the Woodward's store there. Her parents were also teachers at the Montana Children's Center and her mother was a music teacher and church organist.

In the Twin Bridges school system Pauline excelled in academics and music and she was elected to be the first delegate to Girls State Montana from Twin Bridges in her junior year. She and her siblings were musically talented and had music lessons every Saturday in Butte, some 45 miles away. For the times this was unusual for an entire family to have weekly music lessons. Pauline excelled in piano and strings, primarily viola, and she was a part of the Twin Bridges High School music programs.

She graduated as salutatorian of her high school class the following year. Pauline went on from high school to college at the University of Montana in Missoula, where she obtained a degree in Music Education and graduated with honors. During this time she was also named to the Mortar Board organization and was a member of the Tri Delta sorority.

Shortly after graduation in 1953 Pauline was married to Byron Bayers, who at that time was in the Air Force. Pauline and Byron spent the next two years at an isolated radar site in Yaak, MT. From this union three children were born, Rich, Kathy and Jill. After Byron's release from active duty, they returned to the ranch in Twin Bridges where they raised registered Herefords.

Pauline was a dedicated ranch wife and was involved in the family's Hereford ranch, traveling to many sales and events with her husband Byron. They attended two World Hereford Conferences, one in Brazil and the other in Canada. She spent many summers cooking for at least 12 hungry young ranch workers. She was a fabulous cook. Since the ranch had an annual bull sale, Pauline was also in charge of feeding the sale day crowd which often numbered between 600 to 1,000 people. These were both huge tasks that she did very well. She was active in the Montana Hereford Auxiliary and Montana Cowbells for many years. She was awarded the Montana Hereford Association Woman of the Year in 2005. She was one of the co-founders of Hereford America.

At age 50, after flying with her husband for over 25 years, she decided to learn to fly and received her pilot's license. She took her flight test in a high performance Cessna Centurion to prove her skill at that juncture in her life. Pauline was the first licensed woman pilot in

Pauline Bayers

Madison County.

Pauline was an accomplished musician and over the years was part of several musical groups. She was a member of the Chug Chug Girls, a group of local ranch wives who entertained throughout the state of Montana for about 10 years. She also was part of a Ruby Valley string quartet which practiced regularly. Her children often marvel that not too many ranch kids had a string quartet practicing in their living room. The quartet occasionally performed at local events in the valley. Pauline also taught piano lessons to many Twin Bridges kids, one of whom recently carried on part of the tradition by teaching children in Africa how to play piano.

She was the director of the local church choir at the Church of the Valley for 35 years and with friend Ruth Woods, started the Ruby Valley Chorale, which is still in existence today. Ruth and Pauline, along with Phyllis Ruppel and several others in the Twin Bridges community were instrumental in organizing Jubilate which was a music and arts retreat held at the Church of the Valley for close to 20 years. This was a tremendous Christian outreach which included music and art seminars, choral groups and instrumental performances. The group was able to obtain professional singers and musicians who participated in and taught at the retreat which was held in the little town of Twin Bridges.

Along with her musical talents and activities at the Church, Pauline had a deep Christian faith and was very involved in the Church of the Valley her entire life.

Pauline was a member of the Butte Symphony for over 15 years, playing the viola. A highlight of her time with the symphony was being selected to play with the Montana Summer Symphony in Helena for three years.

Pauline was also an avid member of Toastmasters and participated in speaking events throughout Montana.

Pauline was fortunate enough to see some of the great cities of the world, mostly because of connection to the cattle and agricultural community and her travels with her husband, but also in traveling with her daughter Kathy. Those cities included London, Paris, Madrid, Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Honolulu, New York, San Francisco, Seattle, Denver, Phoenix, Kansas City, Chicago and Calgary, among others. Her travels also included many bull sale trips.

Pauline had a definite love of fun and adventure, especially with her family. She would take the kids and any young cousins that wanted to go, swimming, touring Yellowstone Park, skiing and any other fun activity.

Pauline and Byron's 62nd wedding anniversary was July 4, 2015.

Survivors include husband, Byron of Twin Bridges MT, son, Rich (Mary Ann) of Buffalo, WY, Kathy Bayers of Bozeman, and Jill Bayers Hotchkiss (Marc) of Reva, SD. Granddaughter Lindsay Hruby (James) of Cheyenne, WY, Britt Bayers of Portland, OR, great granddaughter Mia of Cheyenne, WY and numerous nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were parents Ross and Oubri Oberg, brother Bob and sister Marian.

Remembrances can be made in her name to the Church of the Valley, PO Box 11, Twin Bridges, MT 59754 or the Alzheimers Organization.

Buzz Goldenstein

Alvin (Buzz) Goldenstein passed away of natural causes at the age of 92.

He attended Leverich School and graduated from Gallatin County High School. Buzz was respected and loved throughout the community as a rancher/farmer. He belonged to many clubs and organizations: First National Bank Board of Directors, Montana Hereford Association, American Hereford Association, Park/Gallatin Hereford Association, Mystic Lake Ditch Company, Bozeman Creek Reservoir, Middle Creek Ditch Company, Sons and Daughters of the Gallatin Pioneers, Montana Winter Fair Board, Co-founder of Sourdough Volunteer Fire Company, member of First Lutheran Church, Elks, Eagles, Gallatin Shriners Desert Scooter Patrol, Riverside Country Club, Bobcat Steer of the Year, and Bobcat Booster Club. He won many awards including Senior Farmer of the Year.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Georgia Monroe Goldenstein; son, John (Jack) Goldenstein; sister, Lucille Goldenstein Froot; and brother, Gerald (Babe) Goldenstein.

He is survived by his sister, Verna Goldenstein Adams; son, Eldon Goldenstein; daughter, Linda Goldenstein Storrusten (Don); and son, Tim Goldenstein (Debbie); eleven grandchildren; and many beloved nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Memorials may be made in his name to Bozeman Deaconess Foundation, 931 Highland Blvd., Ste. 3200, Bozeman, MT 59715; First Lutheran Church, 225 South Black, Bozeman, MT 59715; Eagle Mount, 6901 Goldenstein Ln., Bozeman, MT 59715.

Tom Stromberg

Tom Stromberg passed away at his home on April 23, 2015. He was born on Sept. 23, 1950, in Minot, ND, to Douglas and Caryl Stromberg.

Tom was a long time Gallatin Valley

(Montana) resident. His career in the agriculture and cattle industry, including fieldman for the American Hereford Association, spanned many years and took him to states across the U.S. and Canada. It was through these connections that he developed some of his closest friendships.

On Jan. 10, 2003, Tom married Pamela Allgier and they made their home in Manhattan, MT.

Tom had a special connection with his four grandchildren. They were his pride and joy. Rarely did he miss a school or sports related function as he became a fixture at many baseball/softball fields and basketball courts around Bozeman. Tom enjoyed spending time with his horses and going on horseback rides with his granddaughters.

Tom leaves behind his wife Pam of Manhattan, MT; his son Travis and daughter-in-law Karsen of Bozeman, sister Cheryl Moore (Dave Kraft) of Bismarck, ND; sister Ina (Randy) Gowin of Ottertail, MN; brother Dan (Nyla) Stromberg of Minot, ND; sister Darla (Andy) Fimrite of Burlington, ND; sister-in-law Sue Stromberg of Westfield, IN; grandchildren Libby, Karly, Kendall, and Harris all of Bozeman; several nieces and nephews; and many special friends.

Tom was preceded in death by his parents Doug and Caryl Stromberg and his older brother Larry Stromberg.

Memorials may be made in his name to The American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 11454, Alexandria, VA 22312.

Bobbie Jean Debter

Mrs. Bobbie Jean Debter, age 81 of Horton, AL, passed away on Sunday, July 26, 2015 at Cullman Regional Medical Center.

Bobbie was married to Glynn Debter for 61 years and was a Business Partner and Office Manager for Debter Hereford Farm for more than 60 years. She clerked the Annual Sale at Debter Hereford Farm for 42 years and at one time was book keeper for 5 businesses. Bobbie strongly supported the promotion of the Hereford breed and the family business.

Bobbie was a long time member of New Prospect Baptist Church. She was very active in raising her 6 grandchildren and always enjoyed being around her family. Bobbie was on the Board of Directors for Blount County Department of Human Resources for over 20 years. She was always concerned with her community and it was evidenced by the fact that over 600 people paid their respects at her visitation and funeral.

She is survived by her husband: Glynn Debter of Horton, AL.; her sons: James (Jana) and Perry both of Horton, AL; her grandchildren: Jennifer, Carrie (Steve), Brittany, Haley (Jon), John Ross (Rebecca), and Robert; her great grandchildren: Owen, Emma, Kanin, Cash, Jackson, Claire, and Eva; her siblings: Bill & Sue Kornegay, James "Bo" & Jeannette Kornegay, and Louise Long; her in-laws: Ann & Ronnie Tidwell; and a host of other relatives.

Final Farewell...

Calvin L. Coulter

Calvin L. Coulter, life-long resident of Bridgeport, NE, died August 13, at Morrill County Community Hospital, surrounded by family. He was 85.

Cal was born on January 4, 1930, in the Scottsbluff, NE, hospital to Bern and Esther (Scott) Coulter. He graduated from Bridgeport High School in 1947 and attended the University of Nebraska, graduating from the law college in 1952.

He married Virginia Christensen in 1951 and they lived in Lincoln, NE until his graduation, when they both returned to western Nebraska. Cal ranched and farmed in the Redington community, building a distinguished herd of registered Hereford cattle alongside his father. The annual Coulter Hereford bull sales were an event the whole family looked forward to.

As the Coulter herd grew, so did the Coulter family. Cal and Virginia raised six children on their Redington ranch, and throughout his life the ranch continued to be a gathering place they would bring their children, friends, and extended families to experience and enjoy.

Cal dedicated much of his life and efforts to the beef industry, serving on the state and national Brand Committees, the state and national Beef Boards, the National Cattleman's Association, and was a proud past president of the Nebraska Stockgrower's Association. Calvin received numerous awards and recognition for his efforts promoting agriculture and the beef industry, including Panhandle Outstanding Service to Agriculture in 1986

Calvin was survived by his wife of 64 years, Virginia; daughters Sheryll Coulter of Webster Groves, MO, Susan Coulter of Scottsbluff, NE, Kris Coulter of Santa Fe, NM, and sons Kenneth (Peggy) Coulter of Wright's Gap Road, and Lewis (Susan) Coulter of Bridgeport NE, and son-in-law, Peter Lapaseotes of Bridgeport, NE; sisters Madelyn Anderson of Broadwater NE and Nancy Myers of Longmont CO; 11 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bern and Esther Coulter, in-laws Carl and Lucille Christensen, and daughter Robin Coulter Lapaseotes.

Clair Orr

A much-loved husband, father, grandfather, son, brother and friend, Clair B. Orr, 61, of Kersey passed on to his eternal life with Christ on June 26, 2015, with his family at his side. He had bravely confronted and fought a rare signet ring cell cancer of the duodenum.

He was born on Aug. 12, 1953, in Kremmling, CO, to Jack and Alta Orr. He graduated from Kremmling High School in 1971 and attended Colorado State University. He married Deborah Kautz of Crook in 1974.

Clair, a fourth-generation rancher, raised and showed purebred cattle and sold those genetics worldwide. He spent 35 years selling real estate for Orr Land Co. and Terra West Real Estate. Clair was also founder of AgTown Technologies. He served 11 years on the Colorado

Board of Education and was chairman of the board for two of those years. He was instrumental in the fight for keeping "In God We Trust" in schools, protecting our school trust lands and holding our schools accountable for the education of our children. He served on the Weld County Council and ran for several political offices.

Clair loved politics and believed it was his God given duty to be involved. Clair established Cattlemen for Christ in 1985 and spent his life serving the Lord. He was involved in several other organizations including a member of the Colorado Livestock Association, Weld County Fair Board, Weld County Republicans, Platte Valley FFA Advisory Board, Colorado Cattlemen's Association, Colorado Oil & Gas, Westridge Academy Charter School Advisory Board, and many more.

He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Deborah J. Kautz; daughters, Tonya (Kyle) Pérez of Nara Visa, NM; Kaycee (Jason) Hoffman of Thedford, NE; Katie (Coy) Egbert of Hudson; seven grandchildren, Peyton and Libby Pérez; Haxton, Kennedy, and Hayden Hoffman; Kingston and Crew Egbert; parents, Jack and Alta Orr of Granby; sister, Val Orr of Greeley; brothers, Ed Orr of Greeley and Fred Orr of Denver.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Ed and Susie Linke of Granby; and his paternal grandparents, Ted and Sara Orr of Kremmling, CO.

Memorials may be made to the Clair B. Orr Memorial, P.O. Box 654, Kersey, CO 80644.

Jacob Jerome Kolousek

Jacob Kolousek, age 11, passed away July 24, 2015 at Avera Wesskota Hospital in Wessington Springs, SD.

Jacob Jerome Kolousek was born August 20, 2003 to Amber (Rounds) and Scott Kolousek and lived all his life on the family farm near Wessington Springs. He attended Wessington Springs Elementary School and was a member of Prairie Hills 4-H Club and Western Riders 4-H Club, as well as a member of Youth Blackhawk Football and was the water boy for the High School Blackhawks.

He was a member of St. Josephs Catholic Church and earned the honor of serving as a Red Rope Altar Server.

Jacob loved having opportunities to spend time with his many friends.

Jacob's real love was the farm and helping his Dad & Grandpa in the shop and caring for all the animals.

Our sweet boy's other interests included riding horse, fishing, hunting and shooting his .22, playing golf, reading, snow skiing, building forts & Lego creations and Minecraft.

Jacob is survived by his parents; one brother, Isaac; two sisters, Abby and Ella; his maternal grandparents, Darold and Cindy Rounds; paternal grandparents, Dick and Janet Kolousek; great-grandparents, Fred and Lucille Geisler; great-grandmothers, Marvilla Rounds and Goldie Carter; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by great-grandparents Dale Rounds, Pete & Ione Kolousek and Alfred Carter.

JoAnn Thorson

JoAnn Thorson, age 79 of Philip, SD, died May 5, 2015, at the Philip Nursing Home.

JoAnn Estelle Thorson was born on October 9, 1935 in Mitchell, SD, the daughter of Wayne and Mabel (Taylor) Goss. She grew up in a family still recovering from the Depression and attended several schools during her early childhood. In 1948 fate finally smiled on them and she was able to attend the same school for 5 years graduating from Mt. Vernon High School in 1953.

After graduation, she worked at the local grocery store as a cashier until she was offered a job by Dr. Hvam at the Quinn hospital. She crossed the Missouri River for the first time on her move to Quinn and then drew on her experience of moving around as a child to quickly make lifelong friends. Soon a young man named Lauren Thorson thought she was so pretty that it was worth it to keep getting put into the hospital. They were united in marriage on September 3, 1955 in Rapid City, SD and shared the next 50 years together.

They lived on a ranch northwest of Philip where JoAnn spent time helping on the ranch and raising six children. When the children were old enough to care for themselves and help with making the house a home she re-joined the workforce at the Wall Drug Store as a clerk from 1986 to 2000.

JoAnn was a former member of Trinity Lutheran Church of Grindstone and a current member of First Lutheran Church of Philip. She was also active in the Grindstone Women's Club. JoAnn enjoyed sewing, reading, laughing with her sisters, and dedicated many hours to her garden but her first love was always in raising her children and later on spending time with her grandchildren. JoAnn also enjoyed visiting and attended numerous functions just for the joy of visiting with people.

Grateful for having shared her life are two sons: Rick Thorson and his wife Selma of Philip, and Doug Thorson and his wife Nancy of Quinn; three daughters: Laurie Dale of Amarillo, TX; Linda Thorson of Brooklyn Park, MN, and Rhonda Thorson of Saint Paul, MN; 10 grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren; one brother Dean Goss and his wife Charlotte of Rapid City; and one sister Diane Derr of Lincoln, NE; and many nieces, nephews and other relatives.

JoAnn was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Lauren Thorson; one son Don Thorson; one brother Dan Goss; one sister Margo Thorson; one son-in-law Mike Dale.

Kenneth "Kenny" L. Larsen

Kenneth L. Larsen was born April 29, 1921 to George and Marie (Peterson) Larsen in Decatur, NE. He passed away Wednesday, June 3, 2015, at the Oakland Mercy Hospital in Oakland, NE, at the age of 94 years.

Kenneth attended grade school at Deman Country School. He attended Blackbird High School for two years, and graduated from Decatur High School in 1938. Following graduation he spent two years working in California, until World War II, when he enlisted in the Civil Air Patrol. He was in training at Brookings, South Dakota. He was honorably discharged, to help his father with his farming operation, after his brother James died serving in the war. He was married to Lauretta Beard on July 15, 1944. To this union were born two children, Larry and LeAnn. Kenny and Lauretta lived their entire lives on the home farm place; four miles West of Decatur, farming and raising registered Polled Hereford cattle. Kenneth was baptized and confirmed into the Trinity Lutheran Church. He served as an elder and chairman of the church board for several years. He was very active in many organizations. He served on the District 32 School Board, 4H Extension Board, Burt County Fair Board, Decatur Township Board, Citizens State Bank Board, was a 4H leader, a member of the Burt County Feeders Association, and was Director of the Nebraska Polled Hereford Association.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 63 years, Lauretta; his parents; his brothers, Paul and James.

Joanne "Jody" Carol White

Jody White, went home to the Lord on June 18, 2015.

Joanne "Jody" Carol White was born on December 20, 1948 to Robert and Elizabeth (Bashelor) Mason on the naval base in San Juan, Puerto Rico. She died on June 18, working cattle and doing what she loved on the family ranch in Jay Em, WY. Jody grew up on naval bases around the country, but her heart always longed for Wyoming and she dreamed of life on a cattle ranch. She graduated from high school in 1967 in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba and then realized her dream by attending the University of Wyoming.

While at a dance at the University, she met a blue eyed cowboy and determined that this was the man she would one day marry.

Jody married the love of her life, LeRoy "Butch" White on September 18, 1970 in Laramie, WY. She and Butch, along with Butch's parents, Mort and Jessie White, moved to the Bridger Valley and began their great adventure of raising registered Hereford cattle and kids in Robertson, WY. Jana, Joel and Coby kept her running and active in 4-H, FFA, Wyoming Junior Hereford Association, rodeo and various other activities over the years. One of her greatest joys was working alongside her family on the ranch. She was in her element as a ranch wife and mother and she loved every part of this way of life; the good and the bad, the beautiful and the hard. She would tell you that it was in the difficult situations in life that her faith in God was refined and her character was made into the sturdy stuff that ranch women are known for.

Butch and Jody also ranched in Buffalo, WY, Douglas, WY, Elsmere, NE and finally in Jay Em, WY. Her heart was in Wyoming, but she also gave a big piece of it to the Sandhills of Nebraska and its people. In each community that Jody lived she made lifelong friends and forged strong bonds. She didn't know a stranger and didn't have an enemy. Her church family extends from one end of the state to the other as well as in the Sandhills. Jody wrote columns for the Cattle Country News, the Wyoming

Jody White

Roundup and The Fencepost. She also authored and co-authored two books. She loved to write about her faith, her family and the agricultural way of life and made it a goal to defend it with the written word. She was quite the cowboy poet and did some traveling and sharing of her wit and wisdom with other ranch women. Jody also enjoyed quilting and gardening. She loved the quiet simplicity of her life.

Jody's family was her greatest source of joy and accomplishment and more precious to her than any material possession. She has handed down a strong heritage and legacy of faith, family, strong work ethic and perseverance to her children and grandchildren. Jody's faith and trust in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, is what shaped and guided her to be the woman that she was. Her love of Christ defined who she was in this life and where her hope was found in the next. We know that she went from being horseback one moment to being welcomed with, "Well done, good and faithful servant," the next.

She is survived by her husband, Butch of Jay Em, her daughter and son-in-law Jana and Mike Fraley of Buffalo, her son and daughter-in-law Joel and Karri White of Buffalo, her son and daughter-in-law Coby and Lisa White of Lusk, her daughter-in-law Cora Twombly of Oklahoma. A sister and brother-in-law Robin and Ralph Gronlund of Virginia; brother, Robert Mason of Colorado; brother-in-law Greg Coco of Delaware. Sisters and brothers-in-law Linda and Larry Armstrong of Cody, and Loretta and Tut Anderson of Texas; and sister-in-law Harlene White of Colorado. Nine beloved grandchildren: Brian Schiermiester, Lauren Collins, Hannah Fraley, Kade Fraley, Cuinton White, Cenzie White, Jessie, Stevie, and Cole, and numerous nieces and nephews who adored her. She also leaves behind her loyal dog Witt and beloved horse Rio. Jody was preceded in death by her parents Robert and Elizabeth Mason, one sister Marty Coco, her father-in-law Morton White, and her mother-in-law Jessie White, brothers-in-law Ben and Jim White and sister-in-law Mickie White.

Stanley Clyde Allen

Stanley Clyde Allen peacefully passed April 19, 2015, in Tempe, AZ where he enjoyed the warm winters, secure in the love of his family. He was 80 years old.

Stan was born on Jan. 15, 1935, in Jackson, WY, the second son of Buck L. and Ethel Wilson Allen.

Raised in Salmon, ID on a purebred Hereford ranch, Stan graduated from Salmon High School where he was the captain of the football team. He married his high school sweetheart, Sharon Rose Smith in 1957. The newlyweds moved to South Dakota residing in Pierre, Rapid City and Spearfish. Stan worked for Western Livestock Reporter as a field editor supporting the purebred livestock industry in South Dakota, North Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska and Colorado for over 40 years. He retired in 1998, and devoted his remaining years to enjoying life with his family and friends.

Stan was a dedicated supporter and advocate for kids in agriculture, sharing his love of livestock and passion for animal husbandry with all.

Stan is survived by his ever supportive wife Sharon; daughters and sons-in-law, Teri and Bill Kinghorn of Rapid City, Lisa and Mike Brown of Phoenix, AZ; son and daughter-in-law Tom and Kelli Allen of Argyle, TX; three grandchildren, Cash Kinghorn of Chicago, IL, Jordan and Lauren Allen of Argyle, TX; and two sisters.

He was preceded in death by a grandson, Spencer Allen, his parents and a brother.

Respectfully honoring Stan's wishes he will be remembered in a private ceremony among the pine trees and mountain breezes he so loved. Stan will be interred in the Salmon Cemetery, Salmon, ID. A Stan Allen Memorial scholarship has been established at the Western Junior Livestock Show. Memorial contributions can be sent to: WJLS, 15678 Lower Spring Creek Road, Hermosa, SD 57444.

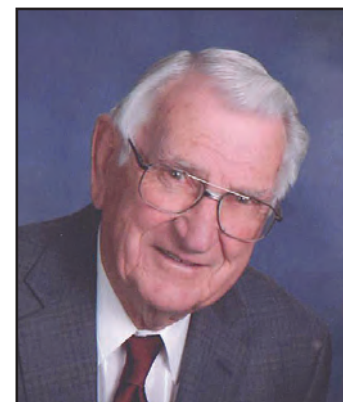

Samuel Ted Thomas

Ted Thomas, lifelong cattleman and strong supporter of the purebred cattle industry, died May 24, 2015. He was 84.

Born in Osage County, OK, April 22, 1931, Ted grew up around some of the best Hereford cattle of the day.

He graduated from Cotopaxi High School, Cotopaxi, CO, in 1950. While there, he became active in 4-H, showing the Grand Champion Steer at the Colorado State Fair in 1950, before heading to Colorado A&M (now Colorado State University), where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Agriculture.

While in college, Ted was President of the Livestock Club and active in the Rodeo club. He was a member of the national champion livestock judging team. He was a member of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association and ranked third nationally in calf roping. He was also a member of the Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC.)

After college, he worked for Full-O-Pep Feeds and the Quaker Oats Co., before being called to active military duty.

Following military service in the Army, he was the merchandizing manager of the Flowing M Cattle Company, Roggan, CO. After their dispersion, he went to work for the Record Stockman in 1960, where he worked with purebred and commercial cattle breeders in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

In 1962 he became a field representative for the American Hereford Association, guiding seed stock producers in their herd management, sales and marketing. While there, he launched the first junior Hereford associations, in Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska and Montana. Ted crafted the 'field day' model, combining judging contest, education, fellowship and fun for youth and their families, and state-wide events with well over 1,000 participants became the norm in the heyday of the Hereford breed.

In 1968, he took over management of Wyoming Hereford Ranch, Cheyenne, under the ownership of the Nielsen family, and remained there until the cowherd was dispersed in 1976. While there, he strengthened the genetics of the famed breeding program, winning Grand Champion Carload of Bulls at the National Western Stock Show, Denver, among other champion and grand champion bulls and females at registered Hereford shows throughout the Rocky Mountain Region.

From WHR, he returned to livestock industry publication work, with the Dakota Farmer and then the Western Livestock Reporter, Billings, MT and then the Wyoming Livestock Roundup, Casper, WY, while developing a seed stock consulting and order-buying business. In 1991, he expanded to offer financial planning services, specializing in protecting the ranching industry.

Ted was a nationally-recognized show cattle judge, walking the lines at the Dixie National Livestock Show, as well as other Hereford events. He served on regional and national boards for the livestock industry, including the Wyoming Fair Board Advisory Council, and was a guide and mentor to many who have risen to prominence in the livestock industry.

He remained a competitive calf-roper through much of his career, and enjoyed steer roping, then steer stopping, as his knees, and his horses, grew older. His last trophy buckle was from the 1997 Don King Memorial Steer Roping.

In 2001, after being widowed a second time, Ted reconnected with his high-school sweetheart, Donna Squire Garrett, at their 51st school reunion. They married in January, 2002.

He is survived by his wife, Donna, Canon City, CO; daughter Debora Hood, Canon City; granddaughter Autumn Steinert, and a great-grandson, Covington, OK; blended-family members Vicki and Eddie Graves, Boise, ID; Val and Julius Romero, Brush, CO; Paul and Laurel Garrett, Cotopaxi, CO; Andrea Skubal, Pueblo, CO; Jody and Harry Love, Loveland, CO; Jacquie and Sam Whitney, Wheatland, WY; Jana and Oscar Erickson, Riverton, WY; 11 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Roy and Georgia Pappan Thomas; and wives Mary Ann (Mickey) Martin Thomas and Jean Chasteen Thomas.

Marvin "Tige" Reinhold

Marvin E. (Tige) Reinhold, 85, of rural Sturgis, SD went to be with the Lord at his home on the Lonetree Ranch on Sunday, June 14, 2015.

Tige was born on June 22, 1929, to Emanuel and Hazel (Jensen) Reinhold in Rapid City, SD. He attended grade school at the Morse Creek School located on the ranch. He went on to attend Rapid City High School where he played football for Coach Cobb. He was unable to finish high school due to the need during the war to help on the family ranch in Meade County, South Dakota. Tige also attended a diesel mechanics course in Fargo, ND.

Tige lived his entire life on the Lonetree Ranch which began as a homestead by his parents in the early 1900's. He loved the land and took seriously his role as a steward of God and a caretaker of the soil, the grass and the livestock which grazed upon it. He was able to dream and worked on many conservation efforts on the ranch including the building of reservoirs upon the many draws coming out of the breaks on the ranch. He had the vision of building one rather large dam that has had a major impact on the ranch and camp.

He met the love of his life, Voreta (Vicky) Rae Bangert in 1955. Tige was doing youth meetings at Big Bend west of Rapid City and he needed a piano player. A local salesman, to whom Tige had loaned $300, told him of Vicky whom he had met at his store. The salesman skipped town with Tige's money, but Tige did find a piano player. They were united in marriage on a very icy February 14, 1956. Vicky said that she would never marry a rancher, but Tige's big smile and his love for the Lord changed that. And as history goes, they spent 48 years working. Tige was a great husband.

Tige was a great Dad. He had a phenomenal work ethic. Many mornings, he would wake us kids in a jovial manner with the greeting, "Are you going to sleep all day?" The Reinhold kids loved Chore Time and summer, because we could work side by side with our parents. Dad was a gentle giant. His huge hands guided us in many projects and on few occasions they would "guide the rod of instruction on the backside" as well. But he poured himself out into his family. He enjoyed his Hereford cattle and he loved good horses. Earliest memories include those of him training colts and also of training his children how to train horses and work cattle. He was always diligent in picking up a hoe and working in the garden with his family as well. This gratification was instilled into his children, too.

Tige could be the jack of all trades, as are many in farming and ranching, but what set him apart was his love. Tige was passionate about his relationship with Jesus Christ. Due to that, his love abounded for all that crossed his path.

God would continue to use Tige in his unique ways to demonstrate what He can do with ordinary people. In 1979 Tige and Vicky were present as two of their sons died in a drowning that the world thought as a tragedy. The family was shaken, but it was held firm to a foundation in Christ that had been built over the years in Tige and Vicky's relationship. Together the family that remained forged ahead in the building of the Rainbow Bible Ranch. Tige and Vicky desired to share their life in reaching out to young people and their families. The family's working ranch would serve as the stage, but it was the passion within people like Tige, that would impact others.

As Tige aged, he would still gain great delight in sharing with young people at camp. He eagerly attended Bible studies and events at Rainbow. At his table during meal time, he would get to know hundreds of kids. And in later years, even though he could not give rides on horseback, he loved giving rides on his golf cart as he drove around the ranch.

Tige became "Grandpa" to thousands of people. It seemed everywhere his children would go, people would ask, "How is your Dad?" The opening line of the mission statement for the Lonetree Ranch is "Our Heritage Is, Our Legacy Shall Be". Tige Reinhold has established a powerful legacy. We as family and friends are grateful.

Tige experienced the drought of the Dirty Thirties in his youth. He could tell stories of blizzards such as the Winter of '49. Tige had the thrill of building a reputable cattle herd. Tige could talk of tragedy and triumph. He was an encourager. In his later years, he observed the terrible drought of the first decade of the 21st century and then he watched as his family experienced the devastation of the October 2013 Blizzard named Atlas. Again he showed his sensitive heart, one of his strongest attributes, as he cried with his family.

We as family and friends have but one right thing to do, and that is to "press on."

Tige is survived by his son, Larry and wife Robin and their children, Rachel, Molly, Danny, Caleb, Julia and Kiersten Reinhold, rural Sturgis; his daughter, Lana and husband Christopher (Box Elder) and their children, Jason, Jana, and Joel (Liz) Morris, Rapid City; and great grandchildren, Madi and Lee; and his sisters, Dorothy Gapp, Piedmont and Ruth Humke, Texas. He was predeceased by his precious wife, Voreta (Vicky); three sons, Danny, Lyle and Lee; his parents, Emanuel and Hazel (Jensen) Reinhold; his sisters, Rose Davis and Ila Reinhold; and three brothers, Carl (Dick) Reinhold, Earl (Tom) Reinhold and Paul Reinhold.

A memorial has been established for the continuing ministry and outreach of the Rainbow Bible Ranch where Tige devoted 36 years of his life in reaching out to youth and their families.

Virginia (Sorlie) Roen

Virginia Corine Sorlie was born October 19, 1932, in Church's Ferry, North Dakota. Virginia "Gin" attended schools in the local area and then graduated with honors from Church's Ferry High School in 1950. She attended college in Moorhead, Minnesota, then transferred to Minot State Teachers College where she received her degree and teaching certificate. She then returned home and lived with family, accepting her first teaching position at a little country school south of Church's Ferry, ND. When a teaching position opened up in Bowman, ND, Virginia was anxious for the opportunity, little did she know she would meet the love of her life there, rancher Robert "Bob" Roen. On August 25, 1954, they were married and to this union, three children were born, Jonathan, Bobby and Julie. Gin could be proud of her roles as an excellent mother, wife, teacher, aunt, and godmother.

She also was considered a great horsewoman and helped alongside her husband Bob on the family ranch. Bob and Gin were an integral part of the Roen Ranch in Bowman, ND, and the legacy the Roen boys built developing Hereford cattle and raising top notch herd bulls. Virginia could be found horseback on the ranch quite often and valued good Quarter horses and smart dogs.

Virginia's loves in this life were her family, her many friends plus, the love she had for all animals, especially her Australian Shepherd dogs and her beautiful Quarter Horses. She instilled her love of horses in her children. Gin taught Bobby and Julie how to ride and some of their fondest memories were traveling to 4-H horse events and rodeos, as well as cattle shows.

In the 80's, Bob and Gin pursued other opportunities to keep their children active in rodeo and horses. They decided to purchase a saddlery near Bozeman, MT. Bob, Gin and Julie ran the saddlery together until Julie's passing from complications of her diabetes. Bob & Gin then sold the saddlery and moved to the Black Hills of South Dakota with their horses. Their beautiful home tucked in the hills gave Virginia some gorgeous areas to ride in. After Bob's retirement, the couple moved to Arizona for awhile, then back to Montana to be near family, before finally deciding to return the Black Hills and settling in Spearfish. Bob and Gin were married over 50 years at the time of his passing in 2013. Virginia remained in assisted care in Spearfish until the time of her passing.

Virginia was preceded in death by her parents Harold and Berneice Sorlie, her husband Bob and their three children Jonathan, Bobby and Julie, as well as brothers-in-law Chriss, Glen and Leland Roen, Melvin Holmquist and Bernard Johnson, sisters-in-law Alice and Pearl. Virginia is survived by two brothers Harold "Hal" (Ann) Sorlie of San Diego, CA, brother Roger "Pete" (Rosemary) Sorlie of Lavista, NE, and sister, Carol (Bob) Reeves of Jackson, TN, sister-in-laws Ethel Johnson of Reeder, ND, and Ann Roen Deisz of Billings, MT, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews. She is also survived by Julie Roen's husband, Russ Olsen, his wife Lauri and their daughters Emily, Hailee and Lysie Olsen of Gallatin Gateway, MT.

Budler's Hereford Champion of the World Contest

Eight Hereford cattle breeders from around the world traveled to the Lone Star State Jan. 31 to Feb. 7 to compete in the 'Hereford – Champion of the World' (COW) and 'Hereford – Miss World' competition held in conjunction with the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo. From watching the judge award the Grand Champion Hereford at the US National Show to personal Hereford herd tours throughout the western frontier, competitors received a true 'taste of Texas' throughout the week.

Champion of the World 2014 Champions revealed

With an eager crowd gathered around the arena, each contestant stood anxiously awaiting the reveal of the 2014 World titles. After an introduction of each animal and breeder, announcer Rob Schacher called the names of top bull and female winners. Since live animals could not be easily transported from four continents to the Stock Show, cardboard cutouts represented each winning animal. Prize money totaling $28,000 USD was awarded to contestants- $3000 USD for regional winners, $5000 USD for international champions.

Fernando Alfonso, from Cabaña Las Anitas of Montevideo, Uruguay, unanimously claimed 2014 'Hereford – Champion of the World' with his bull Kamikaze. Winning the 2014 Expo Prado spring-boarded Kamikaze into the South American regional championship, inevitably securing his place among top bulls worldwide for the competition.

"[It was exciting] when they announced that our bull was the first in the world, and that it was a unanimous call," said Alfonso. "That's a real honor for us, and it pushes us forward."

Immediately after being named World Champion, Fernando was swarmed with Uruguayan media outlets. "It [is huge] news to the main newspapers and TV shows that Uruguay had the best Hereford bull this year," said Alfonso. "[Winning will be] a marketing tool to promote our whole operation worldwide."

Cayley Brown of Perry, Saskatchewan, Canada, captured her second 'Miss World' title in three years with her female CB 122L Lady B 222Z. Lady B first won the Canadian Western Agribition before being selected as the North American regional champion female. "It's really an honor to win Miss World with how the show is run," Brown said. "It's an honor that such a broad spectrum of different views and ways of looking at cattle can appreciate what I have. It really helps for marketing."

Regional winners were:

Females:

• Tranqueras X4564 Lady Revoltosa, exhibited by Las Tranqueras, Argentina, and represented by Carlos Ojea Rullan

• Kanimbla Centrefold G58, exhibited by Kanimbla Poll Herefords, Australia, and represented by Mark Baker
• Panmure 1 Blessing G6, exhibited by Panmure Herefords, Scotland, and represented by Robert Wilson
• CB 122 L Lady B 222Z, exhibited and represented by Cayley Brown, Canada

Bulls

• Kamikaze, exhibited by Las Anitas, Uruguay, and represented by Fernando Alfonso
• Okahu Sonny Bill, exhibited by Otapawa Station Ltd., New Zealand, and represented by Maria Robbie
• Moeskær Pacman 1417, exhibited by Moeskær Polled Herefords, Denmark, and represented by David Ross
• ECR Who Maker 210 ET, exhibited by Fawcett's Elm Creek Ranch, Ree Heights, South Dakota, United States, and represented by Daniel Fawcett.

Sale SCENES & HAPPENINGS

Wyatt and Bruce Agar, Durbin Creek Ranch, Thermopolis, WY, bidding on Lot 199B at the Ned and Jan Ward Sale. They bought the bull for $47,500.

Duncan and Val Lees of Blair-Athol Polled Herefords, Arcola, SK visiting with Jim Duke, Square-D Polled Herefords, Langbank, SK before the Ned and Jan Ward Sale.

Jim McClun, Lazy JM Ranch, welcomed a good crowd to their April sale in Torrington, WY at the Torrington Livestock Auction barn.

Sale day for Lazy JM Ranch brought a good crowd to view the Hereford and Angus offering the McClun family brought to town.

Kenny DeGering, Lusk, WY, one of the top buyers at McClun's sale.

Don Zilverberg (left) of Bar JZ Ranches, Holabird, SD and Ken Bieber of K&B Herefords, Onida, SD at the Thorstenson sale.

Art Handel trying to get Karen Wagner to bid one more time at the Thorstenson sale. Her husband Jim Doolittle (in background) seems amused. The Doolittle Ranch from Buffalo, SD purchased several Hereford bulls to put on their Angus cows for the first time in many years.

Shaw Cattle Co., Caldwell, ID had a fabulous female sale in late May.

Auctioneer Joe Goggins (left) Billings, MT telling Mike and Levi Landers a story before the Stuber Sale. Mike Landers, Levi's dad, is from Miles City, MT. Levi is the AHA rep for this area and lives in Nebraska.

Gus Gustafson from Junction City, KS purchased a bull at the Stuber Sale.
